Re: United States v David Hu 1 20 Cr. 360 (AKH)

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

I write along with my co-counsel, Barry A. Bohrer, to request approval nunc pro tunc for our client, David Hu, to travel for family reasons between February 20 and March 6, 2022. We have discussed this matter with both counsel for the Government and Mr. Hu's Pretrial Services Officer, Ms. Toledo, and neither object to this request.

Mr. Hu contacted his counsel last week to request permission to travel along with his wife between February 20 through March 6 to attend the wedding of their niece/goddaughter in Los Angeles, California, and to visit their daughter, Kelly, who resides nearby in San Diego. Mr. Hu departed on a flight from Newark to San Diego for that purpose on February 20. Please note that this request was not submitted prior to Mr. Hu's departure due to confusion by his counsel concerning the applicable dates, and not due to any failure by Mr. Hu to request permission in advance. Mr. Hu and his wife plan to be in the San Diego area until February 23, at which time they will drive to Los Angeles for the wedding on February 25. They plan to drive back to San Diego on March 1 before their return flight to Newark on March 6.

Very truly yours,
